C                          D                  Am
So, so you think you can tell, Heaven from Hell,
                G                             F
Blue skies from pain. Can you tell a green field
                  C                      Am
From a cold steel rail? A smile from a veil?
                      G
Do you think you can tell?

                          C                          D
And did they get you to trade, Your heroes for ghosts?
               Am                      G
Hot ashes for trees? Hot air for a cool breeze?
                  D                      C
Cold comfort for change? And did you exchange
                        Am                          G
A walk on part in the war For a lead role in a cage?

C                                  D
 How I wish, how I wish you were here.
           Am
We're just two lost souls Swimming in a fish bowl,

G
 Year after year,
D                                     C
 Running over the same old ground. What have we found?
             Am                       G
The same old fears. Wish you were here.
